IMPERIAL COLLEGE HEALTHCARE NHS TRUST
FACULTY OF MEDICINE, IMPERIAL COLLEGE LONDON

DIVISION of Women and Children and Clinical Support (WCCS)
Hammersmith Hospital and St Mary's Hospital

CONSULTANT RADIOLOGIST – with a specialist interest in cardiac radiology
(10 Programmed Activities)

Ref: 290-COND300

Applications are invited for a substantive consultant radiologist post with a sub-speciality interest in non-invasive cardiac imaging. The post has been created in response to a sharp increase in demand for cardiac CT and CMR imaging internally and externally. The post holder will have specific training or experience (Level 2 or 3) in cardiac CT and CMR, and will work with the existing 2 cardiac radiologists to develop the service. The successful candidate will be expected to contribute to the general work of the department, including the general CT, MRI, US and plain film reporting. This post is split between Hammersmith Hospital and St Mary's Hospital.

The successful candidate will be expected to make a significant contribution to training and research in accordance with the strategic aims of the Academic Health Sciences Centre, as well as working with the Divisional team to help manage the service effectively. It is anticipated that the post holder will contribute to this important activity via participation in the training scheme, development of courses, working with Divisional management and local GPs to develop an appropriate open access service for cardiac imaging, and involvement in research.

The applicant must hold their CCST in Radiology or be on the GMC Speciality Register, or be within 6 months of being granted a CCST. Candidates with accreditation in radiology who wish to work only part-time or on a sessional basis are encouraged to apply, as are applicants interested in job-sharing.
